Well its good to be back in the village despite the weather, and since I was last here there seems to be a number of new people and dogs moved in. I expect to meet you at the many forthcoming events being held, details in this issue! Meet your fellow villagers at the Three Horseshoes on the 31st March with live music by the Dave Johnson band (really good) or if you can't make that come to the Cinema night at the village hall on 13th April.

On a sadder note Joyce Orford passed away in March and details of her funeral are included in this issue. My own memory of Joyce is seeing her in the car park at Sainsburys in Wellingborough with a crowd of people around her car trying to get in after she had closed the boot with the key inside. After establishing she had a spare key at home I drove her back to Ecton (at speed she insisted as she had frozen food in the car) and then back to Wellingborough!

Also in this issue are details of the Ecton Big Lunch, the Master Baker competition, the Safari Supper, Ecton Neighbourhood Plan (most important) and the Village Hall AGM.

YOUR VILLAGE NEEDS YOU

so please take part and return the questionnaire on the neighbourhood plan and come to the village hall AGM and tell us what you want!!

And one more thing, if you are sending items for magazine, in pdf please

The secret of contentment is knowing how to enjoy what you have,
and to be able to lose all desire for things beyond your reach.

Ecton Cinema Night

Saturday 13th April, 7.30

Inspired by a true story, THE SAPPHIRES follows four vivacious, young and talented Australian Aboriginal girls from a remote mission as they learn about love, friendship and war when their all girl group, The Sapphires, entertains the U.S. troops in Vietnam in 1968. Cynthia, Gail, Julie and Kay are discovered by Dave, a good-humored talent scout with a kind heart, very little rhythm but a great knowledge of soul music. As their manager, Dave books the sisters their first true gig giving them their first taste of stardom, and travels them to Vietnam to sing for the American troops.

Doors open 7.00pm, Licensed bar

A one day get together for neighbours across the UK.

Ecton Village Big Lunch 2013

A family event where everyone is welcome!

Bring a plate of savory food and we will create a buffet fit for Kings!

From the Vicarage,

The last month has seen yet more cold weather and so it seems to have been a very long winter. Nevertheless some very good things have been happening. Just last Saturday (as I write) Great Doddington held an amazing 'Mexican Evening' in aid of the building works. We don't yet have the final total of money raised, but we are assured that the figure will be in excess of £1,000! There was wonderful food (chilli con carne), lovely entertainment (flamenco), as well as many guests appearing in costume so good that you needed a second look to make sure who it was! There was a prize for the best, but I shall long remember Warwick Coulson with his inflatable horse costume, complete with electric fan secreted ... (don't ask where)! Our most heartfelt congratulations to all those who worked so hard to make this event happen and help us a very significant further step along our fundraising road.

Also last Saturday was the annual Bishop's Bible Day which, as before, was also excellent value. It was disappointing that so few from our benefice took advantage of this, for the Bishop's two keynote addresses were super, there was a wide range of helpful workshops, and there was a very good session of questions to the two bishops at the end of the afternoon. All of that plus exhibitions, a Christian bookstall, and of course, the chance to 'network' with Christians from other churches across the whole diocese. If you missed it, please make sure you don't next year!

A very significant recent event at Ecton has been the funeral (March 7th) of Margaret Weddle. Margaret and her husband Tony had been very well known across the diocese from the early 1970s, living for many years at Kislingbury, but in Ecton from 2000. Tony went to glory a few years ago now, but both had been not just Church members, but very active in every community where they had lived. For the past eighteen months Margaret has lived at the Cliftonville Care Home in Northampton, but nevertheless still very much part of the church community at Ecton. We are sad to lose her although we have complete confidence that she is now with her Lord in glory, and we are sad too that we shall no longer have as many opportunities to meet her lovely family members. Our love and prayers are with all of them.

Last month I wrote about the plans we had for Easter and I guess this edition will be distributed just before the Easter week end. I hope that all will have received our Easter leaflet before then, giving details of all the events. I mentioned briefly last month that this year we are mounting again the 'Experience Easter' interactive exhibition in all three church buildings and inviting the children from our three primary schools to come and take part. In 2010 this was a great success, but we felt after three years it was time to do it again. Each Church will also be open Monday to Wednesday from 8.00-9.00pm for adults to engage at their own level, with each evening ending with a brief and simple service of 'Night Prayer'. The other different event this year (new for Great Doddington and Wilby) will be the dawn service at 6.00am on Easter Morning. This will take place at Ecton (although all early risers are most welcome) and will include elements of the service of Light, the Easter vigil, renewal of Baptism vows, and Holy Communion. It will be followed by a simple breakfast together.

After all the busyness of Lent and Easter I shall enjoy a few days' break in Easter week, but quickly back for more exciting 'happenings'. On April 6th we have the first wedding of the year. I don't usually mention weddings in magazine articles, but this one is particularly special because it is the wedding of a centrally committed couple who met at Church and their relationship has bloomed in and around the Church community.

George Thompson and Debbie Cushing will be married at Wilby at 3.00pm. Please include them in your prayers.

This is an especially important month for Wilby, for on April 21st the new toilet and servery facilities will be dedicated at a special service at 10.00am (please note the change of time) to which all are most welcome. We are delighted that The Very Rev'd Charles Taylor, Dean of Peterborough Cathedral, will be with us to conduct the dedication and as guest preacher. The P.C.C. has, over the last few months, been busily revising Wilby's version of the 'Common Worship' Communion service and we shall also be launching this revision at this event. In the light of all this it has been decided that the service at Great Doddington will be cancelled so that we can celebrate together. The regular All-Age service at Ecton will go ahead, but for this one occasion it will not include Holy Communion.

Also in April we are mounting a brief series of midweek meetings which we hope will lead into a renewal of our housegroups at Great Doddington and Wilby, as well as initiating one or two at Ecton, something for which there has been a need for a very long time. Entitled 'Vision into Action' this series will begin by connecting with the 'Refreshing the Vision' series we ran just over a year ago, will move into unpacking the contents of our new vision and mission statements for the new benefice, and end by looking at the question of where we go from here in the light of all that. These meetings will be duplicated at different times in all three villages, with a mixture of afternoons and evenings, but friends are welcome to attend whichever is the most convenient. Full details of dates and times are being published through the churches.

Finally, please remember our Annual Parochial Church Meetings and make sure you join the electoral roll in time to vote. That at Ecton will already be past, but Great Doddington's is on Tuesday April 16th, and Wilby's on Thursday April 25th. The booklets containing all the annual reports will be available in the churches at least a week in advance.

With every blessing,

Chris Pearson.

Ecton Master Baker Competition 2013

Many of you may remember that in 2012 we started the search for Ecton's Master Baker with a Pork Pie competition. The dubious honour was awarded to the one and only Colin Tinston at the Jubilee Party.

This year we are searching for people of a sweeter disposition & are looking to crown Ecton's Master Sponge Cake maker at the Big Lunch on Sunday 02nd June 2013.

The rules are few and simple:

- Your sponge must consist of at least two layers
- There must be a tasty filling between the layers
- You can choose any flavour or combination of flavours and any decoration goes.

To increase your chances of winning you can enter a maximum of two cakes into the competition, so why not try two different recipes?

Don't delay, take this opportunity to compete with the best on Sunday 02nd June 2013, for the coveted prize of Ecton Master Sponge Cake Maker 2013.

ADRIAN TEAL CARTOONS

Mr. BENJAMIN FRANKLIN

I'm giving a talk about my bawdy, illustrated history book, The Gin Lane Gazette, at Benjamin Franklin's House in London, at noon on 15th April. I'll be mentioning Ecton, and Franklin, since he turns up in the book. I'll also be talking at Northampton Waterstone's on Thursday 11th April.

"Ecton Not Unmindful"

Commemorating the men of the village of Ecton who fought in World War One

A book commemorating the men of the village of Ecton, covering as far as is possible their military service and for those who survived, their lives after the war. It is intended the book should be released in 2014 commemorating the centenary of the war.

There are eighteen men on the Shrine in the village and eighty-four on the Roll of Honour in the Church. Also there is the Ecton War Book, also in the Church, which was started by Canon Jephson at the beginning of the war and contains photographs of many of the men and small comments about the service of a few of them.

Many of the service records were lost due to various reasons so it is not always possible to pinpoint a man's actual regiment, also many of the men who returned moved away from the village and have been difficult to trace.

If any of your readers have photographs, or information about their forebears who fought in the war and lived or were connected to the village, Angela Crabtree, the researcher for the book, would be grateful if they would contact her either by telephone 02476 693904 or by e-mail amcrabtree@hotmail.com

YOUTH CLUB

We would like to thank all the people who helped to make the bridge drives such a success. Many people worked very hard cooking roast potatoes, making tea and coffee, serving food and most important setting up and clearing away. And a big thank you for all donations of raffle prizes. I would also like to give a special thank you to Phyllis for the delicious shortbread which was enjoyed by everyone. This is our big fund raising event of the year so thanks again.

We have been very busy at youth club in the last month making Mother's Day presents, doing sand art, making cake pops, bowling in Wellingborough and roller skating at Benham sports centre.

We were specially delighted with our visit from Maurice creed and his team who taught us the game of short mat bowls. We had a thoroughly enjoyable night and would like to thank them very much.

Ecton is a Northamptonshire village parish in the Borough of Wellingborough. It is situated on a hill, built around a church and an historic hall, all set in green fields and mature trees. Ecton is a sociable village with lots of community activities across all age groups using village assets such as the village hall, the church, the school and the two pubs. Partly in a conservation area, the character of the village is typified by houses built of traditional ironstone and more recent brick houses. The village celebrates a historical connection to the ancestors of Benjamin Franklin.

What does Ecton mean to you?

Introducing the Ecton Neighbourhood Plan

Do you agree with planning decisions made that affect Ecton village and do you want to be more involved in planning decisions in the future? Under the Government's policy of giving communities more power in planning local development, a Neighbourhood Plan is a new opportunity for parishioners to have their opinions recognised by the planning process.

The Parish Council wants to learn your views: this could lead to changes and either more or less development, or different types of development might be allowed in the village in the future.

A questionnaire has been distributed with this month's Ecton View. This is your chance to have your say about the future of your village. Please return completed questionnaires by 31st May to the Drop Box in The Three Horseshoes or to the addresses listed at the end of the questionnaire.

Let us know what you want

The purpose of the village hall is to provide a venue for various forms of recreation and leisure for the villagers. As you will have seen from previous editions of this magazine and heard from your friends and neighbours, your village hall hosts a wide variety of activities. To help planning for the future, the village hall committee needs to understand your views on the types of activity there have been and the types you would like to see in the future.

The Village Hall Committee invites you to join them for a drink and a chat on Tuesday 9th April at 7.00pm.

There will be the opportunity for you to see examples of the activities over the last year and to meet the people who organise them so that you can share your views with them. In addition, there will be representatives from other village groups and organisations for you to meet.

This informal gathering will be followed at 7.30 by the Annual General Meeting of the Village Hall to which all villagers are invited. At the AGM you will hear a report on the committee's actions, the hall's financial situation and thoughts on future development.

To give the committee the best chance of meeting the needs of the villagers please come to the village hall on the 9th April.

10 GAMES AND PLAYOFFS LOOK LIKELY FOR TOWN

Northampton 1 - 0 Bristol Rovers. 10 wins in 11 games at home. Just about the best home record in all 4 divisions. The game its self was poor, not much football played, however at this stage of the season its the results that count. Ben Harding scored the goal from the ever reliable source of Ben Tozer's throw in's in the 87th minute. His throw ins are a constant danger and defences struggle to stop them causing havoc in the box. Northampton's home record is keeping them in touching distance of the top 3. 41 points at home where just 17 away from home. Our poor away form continued at Exeter a team who have won as many games at home as we have away, a team there for the taking. However straight from a corner the usually rock solid keeper Lee Nicholls dropped the ball into the back of the net. A sign of things to come for the Cobblers. Nicholls almost gave away a second goal straight from a goal kick but former Cobblers man Aaron Davis missed an open goal all though could be let off from 35 yards out. Exeter's second came from veteran striker Jamie Cureton an excellent headed goal from a free kick. It was 3-0 in the 83rd minute but by then it didn't matter the match was won, Northampton were hit on the counter attack by an excellent run by Gosling who finished in composed fashion. Northampton were punished from their mistakes they made, although the over all performance wasn't that bad, but a series of missed chances cost them. With 10 games to go Northampton should (touch wood) Make the playoffs, its away from home that will decide weather Northampton are serious contenders for a top 3 spot. How ever no matter what happens Cobblers fan's should remember this time last year we were struggling to stay in the league, Aidy Boothroyd has worked wonders in one season to take us back to competing with the best in our league.

It seemed like a good idea at the time.

When one of the guys at work asked me whether I wanted to be part of a team of 4 people on a sponsored walk for charity I said yes, thinking along the lines of an afternoon stroll around Pitsford Water or maybe a 30k route if we wanted To be a bit more ambitious.

It turns out that he's actually signed us up for the Trailtrekker challenge which is a 100km trek for teams of four, over 30 hours across the Yorkshire Dales National Park..... I suppose I'd better go and buy some walking boots. We hope to raise £1,400.00 between us and any help that you can give towards my £350.00 target would be much appreciated.

Paul Godby

Joyce Orford

Joyce was born on 29th May 1921 in the district of Meersbrook in Sheffield; sadly her younger twin sister, Joan, did not survive the birth. She also had a brother, who she grew up with until later in life but who then predeceased her. Her parents had been married almost 3 years earlier in Ecton Church where Joyce's grandfather worked on the estate. It seems that in April 1941, probably as a result of the war, the Orfords came to Ecton and took up the tenancy of Hazel Cottage, 58 High Street. Joyce told me that her grandfather lived in a cottage just down the High Street on the east side. Joyce was to live in Hazel Cottage until moving into a nursing home late in 2012, over 70 mainly happy years.

It was during the war that Joyce met my Aunt Edith when they worked together for the war effort in an establishment in Salcey Forest. My aunt was a twin, just like Joyce, and that friendship flourished until 2011 until sadly my Aunt passed away. As a result of this our friendship with Joyce grew and we would take her to Wimbledon to visit Auntie. Joyce would spend Christmas and Easter with us and then we would celebrate her birthdays. On her 90th we had lunch at Fotheringhay and afterwards went to Burleigh House. Joyce worked for many years on the switchboard at Wellingborough Council and met good friends there. Through her being a Christian she was well known at Ecton Church and through this connection she went on a trip to the Holy Land led by Fr. Pickard. Her life was in Ecton and happily she did not have to leave it until right near the end.

We are grateful to all those people in Ecton and from the church who made her last months in Hazel Cottage possible and for the care shown when she was in the nursing home.
Donald and Elizabeth Loe.
