DEAR FRIENDS AT ECTON

The month of June is full of christian celebrations which enable us to give thanks to God and build ourselves up in faith and love to work for Christ and His Kingdom.

Pentecost on June, 3rd is a time for reminding ourselves that the outpouring of the Holy Spirit and His gifts are available to us as we serve a living Christ in our generation. Gods creative spirit continually re-creates and enlivens us and we must be open to it. Pentecost speaks to us of hope and fulfilled power to serve Christ and to know his will for each one of us.

Trinity Sunday speaks to us of the majesty and mystery of God and the awesome wonder of creation and our dependency on God who has given us life through the Father of creation. The Son in redemption and the Holy Spirit is continually re-equipping us day by day with His gifts and power.

St Barnabas was the great encourager in Christ and his festival on the 11th June is a chance for us not only to thank God for the life of his saint but also a reminder that we need to encourage and support each other and also to thank God for all those who have supported and encouraged us to grow in faith and good works.

The Festival of the Birth of John The Baptist on 24th June is an opportunity to recall how God initiates his saving purpose through ordinary people. The calling of John to challenge God's people to repentance and to be prepared to receive Christ is a continuing work for the Chruch and each of us in our membership of Christ's Kingdom.

St Peter's Day on 29th June is a great day in Peterborough Diocese with the Cathedral dedicated to him. Peter is so popular with all of us. Impulsively keen to serve our Lord, too easily sinful and ready to deny the Lord he loved but also capable of receiving forgiveness and commissioning for leadership and service.

Do enjoy your worship in June and as you prepare to welcome your new incumbent build yourselves up in the service of Christ because it is not only those who are ordained who have a Ministry to Christ.

Finally may I say what a privilege it has been to worship with you.

God Bless.

Yours sincerely in Christ.

PCC NOTES

At the meeting held on Wednesday, 25th April Jean Morrison, Marion Gleave and Brian Saunders were welcomed as newly elected members. As Sylvia Johnson became a Deanery Synod member and this left a vacancy Mr L Murdin was co-opted to fill this vacancy for the coming year.

Mr Murdin was then appointed Secretary of the PCC and John Strange re-appointed a Treasurer for the year.

CHOIR ROBES

There was a query regarding the colour of the new Choir Robes, as these were blue and not scarlet as had been anticipated. It was explained that the Crown were gradually phasing out the use of scarlet unless there was a particularly strong Royal connection with the Parish concerned.

TOWER RESTORATION

The work was now under way and contracts with our contractors had been signed. Some discussion concerning the work required around the tower door with English Heritage and our Architects were continuing and the Church Wardens would report the outcome at the next meeting.

ECTON HOUSE

Denis Strange, Chairman of Ecton House has acknowledged the Donation received from the Parish.

A PCM

It was agreed that the Annual Parochial Church meeting had passed off satisfactorily and those who came enjoyed themselves. There was some dissatisfaction at the poor attendance when compared with previous years. A lively discussion then followed but the meeting was unable to categorically discover the exact reasons other than apathy for the poor turnout.

FLOWERS

There was a lengthy discussion regarding church flowers, particularly their cost and that the flower rota was almost void of names at the present time.

It was stressed that the point of being on the flower rota was to provide flowers, not necessarily having to pay for them. Wherever possible we should use garden flowers and people should feel under no pressure to have to purchase them.

It was also stressed that anyone not willing or able to actually arrange flowers themselves could give money to Mary Strange who would try to arrange for others to arrange flowers if it was their wish.

The PCC would welcome other thoughts on how we can maintain the constant presence of flowers in the church.

A WHEELCHAIR FOR GOZO (and Hearing Aids)

A big thank you to everyone who helped to collect bar codes. I must admit that it was rather like weighing feathers but just before I went away we managed to top the 2 Kilos required to purchase the wheelchair. They almost filled a suitcase, so I was really glad that the Customs man didn't ask to look in my suitcase when I arrived in Malta. Imagine explaining why we were 'smuggling' bar codes!

Anyway my friend Veronica was delighted with our efforts and the parcel was swiftly passed on to the priest in charge of the appeal. We were delighted to know that our contribution was enough to provide a wheelchair, but disappointed not to know who the recipient was going to be, it would have been nice to have a person to identify with and keep in touch with in the future. Still we can be confident in the knowledge that getting about will be a little easier for one disabled Gozitan.

As you will know by now I'm a sucker for collecting things & especially if they can provide something for nothing, so my next project is to collect old, broken or unused Hearing Aids. Their condition is of no importance because they are being sent to an Englishman living in Gozo who uses all the spare parts to make new hearing aids for children on the island. I understand that there are still 27 children who are totally deaf and whose families are unable to provide finance for such sophisticated equipment.

If you are able to help, then please have a word with me either at Church or call in to 17 West Street.

Ecton Fellowship

Ecton Womens Fellowship invites all who have hearing difficulties or who may be interested in the treatments available, to come to their meeting at 2.30 p.m. on Tuesday, 12th June 1990 in the Rectory Room.

The Speaker will be Sarah Quinton, Senior Audiology Technician to the Northampton Health Authority, and a video presented by Siemens, entitled "A better life through clearer hearing", will be shown.

All are welcome.

Women's Institute

On the 1st of May WI Voluntary County Organiser (VCO) Mrs Joyce Haynes, led discussion of this year's AGM resolutions. We understand there is likely to be lively debate on the day, but Marion Gleave, who will represent Ecton at the Albert Hall on the 7th of June, was left in no doubt which way to vote. Ecton WI supports the banning of the use of Bovine Somatotropin (BST), used to artificially enhance milk yields of dairy cattle, and is in favour of the creation of an Antarctica wilderness park within which the extraction of oil and minerals and other commercial, military and polluting activities should not be permitted. A vote in favour of the new Constitution for the National Committee of WI was also recorded. This, the 75th AGM, is to be honoured by attendance of another rather special member, HM The Queen. Have a good day, Marion!

Winners of the competition for "The Prettiest Handkerchief" were Sylvia Johnson, Carol Jones and Denise Langley.

Miss J Hodgkinson, the Keeper of Social History at Northampton's Abington Museum, pays a return visit to Ecton on Tuesday, 5th June when she will talk about "Women's Costumes 1800 - 1914". The competition is for "A Garment of that Period".

ECTON HALL CRICKET CLUB

The 1990 season started with hot sunshine and firm wickets. We lost our first two Sunday matches against Old Bradwell and Mears Ashby, but good batting performances were made by Chris Ellis, Kevin Lester and Mervyn Draper.

Our first evening fixture against the Minnesota Maidens ended with a comfortable win for Ecton.

The Club has entered the St. Crispins knockout competition with the first round away to Cogenhoe on Friday 1st June. Other June fixtures are as follows:-

Sunday	3rd	June	Collingtree	at Collingtree
Wed.	6th	"	Stoke Bruerne	at Stoke Bruerne
Sunday	10th	"	Heyford	at Ecton
Tues.	12th	"	Pedants	at Ecton
Sunday	17th	"	Pitsford	at Ecton
"	24th	"	Clipston	at Clipston
Tues.	26th	"	St. Crispins	at Duston

The Draw Pool winners for March were:-

Pathfinders

We started in January and are now pleased to be able to say that we have twelve lively youngsters aged between 9 3/4 and 14 1/2 who meet Sunday evenings in Ecton House 7.00 p.m. to 8.30 p.m.

We currently have three leaders - Graham Jordan, Richard Mayne and Mary Strange - and two helpers - Pat Baylis and John Cartwright. Regrettably Richard leaves us towards the end of July and a total of four leaders and say three helpers would make running Pathfinders a far easier operation.

The teaching material we use is very easy to follow, keeping preparation time quite small and the meetings are invariably great fun to be part of. If you would be prepared to be a leader (or helper) please speak to me and I will endeavour to answer any questions you might have.

Even if you don't think you could be a leader or helper please hold this in your prayers so that the people God is prompting to do this important work will have the courage to say "Yes" and come forward to help our youngsters grow in understanding and Christian faith.

A CHRISTIAN VIEWPOINT

Ever since I have been in Ecton, it seems that I have been at pains to explain my view that there is a need to confront fellow Christians about obvious sins.

I have deliberately avoided the word "judging", because it conjures up so many negative images. It seems that when we judge we condemn and pass sentence as well. This is hardly in line with Christ's commandment to love one another, and indeed leaves us open to the comment "Do not judge or you too will be judged" (Mt 7:1)

And so we can clearly see that any attempt to point out failure in others from a point of self-righteousness is bound to end in failure with a 'tit-for-tat' exchange. For we are all sinful, absolutely and utterly. It is only Christ who can throw the first stone.

But what about a situation where we pass comment out of love? If I have a friend who is heading for physical danger or punishment by doing wrong, is it right for me to stand by and let them possibly saying "it's their own choice" or "If they get it wrong once, they won't do it again". Possibly some of us would. But wouldn't most of us walk alongside that person and with love and patience, put them on the right path?

So if we are prepared to do this in a physical sense, why not a spiritual one?

Is it because our 'personal' relationships with God mean that we can have our own individual views about what is wrong and what is right, giving nobody else a way in?

Or is it because we simply don't feel close enough to each other to speak as fellow Christians, the family of God?

Another reason may be that we don't feel confident about our own holiness, scared of all the things that people may point out to us?

All these reasons lead us to two conclusions;

First, at all times our attitude to each other must be of love humble and willing to serve. Only then will God use us to guide.

Secondly, God is calling us to be holy and encourage holiness in others. "Holy" means set apart, in this case set apart from the wages of the World to the glory of God. It is not an option (Lev 11:44). It is part of being a Christian, an active process. It will not be achieved just by going to Church, although God's grace will work in us if only we are open to it. To quote Keith Green "Going to church doesn't make you a Christian anymore than going to McDonalds makes you a hamburger".

So let's get holy for God and for ourselves. The final judgement is coming, and I for one don't want to be found wanting. And, I especially don't want the Lord to ask me why I let my friends walk sinful paths without encouraging them to be faithful to Him.

Richard Mayne

PARISH NOTES

A new job for Revered Peter Hartley

In these notes last month I was able to report that Reverend John Evans had a new Parish. This month our thoughts and prayers go out to Peter Hartley as he prepares to move to the Chelmsford Diocese.

For the past eleven years, Peter has been Diocesan Director of Education, a job of immense proportions that he has undertaken alone for most of the eleven years. In August Peter assumes a similar position for the Chelmsford Diocese with a staff of six to help him. Over recent years we have come to know Peter as the priest who comes to Ecton when our Rector is away we shall miss him, and pray that he will continue God's work amongst the schools in his new area.

Our New Rector

I am sure you will all now know that Reverend Peter Naylor will become the 56th Rector of Ecton this July. His Service of Institution will take place on Monday, 9th July at 7.30 p.m. conducted by the Bishop of Brixworth. Following the service a party to welcome Peter to our Parish will be held in Ecton House. Everyone in the Parish is warmly invited to come to both the service and party afterwards. We look forward to seeing you, lets make it a reception to remember!

You will find an article headed "Peter Naylor" elsewhere in this months magazine.

House Group

From small beginning or so the saying goes our House Group continues to grow in numbers and faith. If you are interested in coming to our monthly meetings for the first time ask Mary Strange for more details.

PETER NAYLOR

The Reverend Peter Edward Naylor, presently Vicar of Nork in the Diocese of Guildford, is soon to become the Rector of St Mary Magdalene, Ecton and Warden of Ecton House, the Peterborough Diocesan Retreat House and Conference Centre, established in 1968.

Peter, 59, and married with five grown-up children, comes with a wealth of experience to help him in his new job.

Peter comments, "I have spent my ministry almost equally between an inner city parish near the Thames, and the suburban parish of Nork, never thinking that I would become a country Rector." But he adds, "The thought thrills me very much, being born and brought up in the country, in the small village of Hale near Liverpool. My family records there can be traced back for more than 500 years.

Peter remembers his childhood with affection. His father was a barber in Widnes for other 60 years. 'Grandfather Naylor' had four blacksmith shops in the area and on his Mother's side, his Grandfather was a ploughman. His Uncles "The Naylor Brothers" were well known pigeon fanciers of the day.

His Wife, Pat, is also a "country girl" from Airmyn, Near Goole in Yorkshire. For Peter, the thrill of returning to the country and village life is obvious indeed.

Peter's interests are many and varied, but possibly the most prominent is his love of the theatre. In 1989 he became chaplain (for a second time) of the Savoy Theatre in London, recently devastated by fire. Being particularly interested in the history of Music Hall and Variety Theatre, he has been associated with many London theatres as chaplain since the mid 1960's. These include the London Palladium, the Victoria Palace and the Player's Theatre. He has been honorary chaplain to the Grand Order of Water Rats, and has served as honorary chaplain to the Grand Order of Lady Ratlings since 1971.

He is also a keen watcher if not player of sport. He says he likes to relax by watching Sutton United FC, something he admits with a tinge of sadness, he may now only be able to do when they play Kettering Town! In Summer he likes to watch cricket, and strangely for someone born on the Western side of the Pennines, his favourite is Geoffrey Boycott! Peter combined his interest in sport and broadcasting with an interview for "World of sport" in 1989. Peter has done frequent broadcasts for the BBC since the 1960's, especially associated with the writing, compiling and narrating of documentaries. Turning to his new role in Ecton, Peter clearly has had a long and abiding interest in the retreat movement, and is looking forward to developing the work of Ecton House, one of Britain's leading retreat centres. "It is an honour to be selected by the Queen for this work" he says.

"Throughout my priesthood I have been a dedicated Ecumaniac and will do everything within reason and within the laws of the Church of England to further the cause of uniting in Christ's Church. I believe Christians should be firm in the faith and engaged in the world God created."

Asked about his feelings on leaving Nork, Peter reflects, "Of course I feel great sadness in leaving; a parish priest can not leave his parish without feeling some pain and regrets. However, I feel God is calling me to Ecton, and I also feel that He wants another priest to carry on His work in Nork.:

But turning positively he says, "I really can't wait to get to know the people in Ecton. Already I feel very much at home in the village: everyone that Pat and I have met have been very friendly. After nearly a year's interregnum there will be much to do and I look forward to it."

Catering for Children

In last months issue a "job specification" was published. We are looking for someone to take over the very important role of Sunday School Teacher, to succeed Toni Main who is unable to carry on this important work for much longer. I am sure there is someone out there who with God's help could take on this rewarding role three Sunday mornings each month. Is it you? Please speak to Henry or myself.

Flower for the Institution of our New Rector

Mary Strange has kindly agreed to organise flowers for this important occasion. If you would like to contribute towards the cost please see Mary.

HOUSE GROUP

Thank you to Richard for hosting our meeting on 17th May . His soup was delicious and his many talents, which he gladly uses in God's service, ensure that he will be sadly missed after July and a hard act for any new assistant warden to follow!

We have an extremely useful prayer and discussion evening and have now decided to have two meetings per month (on the second and fourth Thursday) to help us to grow together in faith and to create more opportunities for other to join.

As we are now progressing to twice monthly, it has been decided that we will meet in Ecton House fairly frequently. Most meetings will not commence with soup and cheese but tea/coffee and biscuits will be served either at the beginning or end.

Those who attend House Group meetings are not spiritual giants; only Christians taking an opportunity to grow in fellowship and spend some time learning from each other as we each walk life's spiritual path.

Please, please, PLEASE - if you want to join in - do come along. You will receive a warm welcome at any meeting and hopefully leave comforted in knowledge that you are not the only one struggling with your faith or who needs to share with others. We are all one in the body of Christ (we say this Sunday by Sunday) and we must learn how to effectively operate together as representatives of Christ on earth now.

Details of our next few meetings are as follows:

Thursday, 14th June	8.00 p.m. Ecton House Bible Study - Richard
Thursday, 28th June	8.00 p.m. 4 Barton Fields, Ecton Bible Study - Toni

Ecton Youth Club

We are sorry that Mr Grayham Day has had to retire from helping with Youth Club nights after nearly 10 years. Is anyone free to take his place on a Wednesday night once a month from 7.30 p.m. until 9.30 p.m.

Thank you very much for your support for the Youth Club Jumble Sale which raised £80.69. Our Youth worked hard collecting the Jumble and on Saturday Matthew, Kerry, Nickie, Bev and Joe worked hard all day.

Does anyone play chess (?) and is free on Tuesday nights to join the Adult Club, also if you play table tennis, snooker, or cards anyone welcome between 8.00 p.m. until 10.30 p.m.

Lunch Club will be on Wednesday, 20th June.

Over 60's Club

The last of the Whist Drives took place in April and will be resumed again in October.

We now look forward to our Summer outings to Derbyshire, Leamington Spa, Mystery Tour and Rutland Water.

In May twenty eight members and friends had a five day holiday in Torquay and it was thoroughly enjoyed.

The dates for the June meetings are 4th and 18th in Rectory Room. On 11th June we are having tea with Mrs M Beesley at South Lodge.

Flower for Institution

A PRIVILEGE - NOT A CHOICE

Someone special to tea - get out the best china and table cloth - bake special cakes - all to honour the Guest!

Sunday - it's my turn to do the flowers - I am no good at flower arranging - shall not put my name down - result in church dead from last week - or none at all.

What a reception for our Guest - I can not think Mary or Martha at Bethany attended flower arranging classes but each in her own way made welcome their Guest.

Our flower rota has long gaps in it, yet our gardens are full of flowers - we have had all those drearer Lenten weeks without and now when garden and countryside are aflame with blossom none - or last weeks dead!

Take up your privelege to make His House beautiful, it does not matter a thing if it is not done according to the rules - it is the intention that counts.

Let everything that hath breath praise the Lord, Laudate Dominum.

OPERATION SPRINGCLEAN
SATURDAY 28TH APRIL 1990

..... dawned warm and sunny, the sort of day to be doing the garden or going to the seaside, but sixteen stalwart residents of Ecton set out to clean up the village. A most gratifying result to the mornings work was 93 sacks of litter and weeds piled in Mr Needhams garden ready for collection. Not so gratifying will be the knowledge that before too long the village may be in the same sorry state once again.

Each year Ecton enters the Tidy Village and Best Kept Churchyard. Thanks mostly to Henry Pinney we always do well in the Churchyard competition, but not so well in the village one, so we thought that this year we'd make a real effort.

Maybe if everyone in the village takes a little extra care to pull up the weeds outside their home together with the litter we shan't have to work so hard for Operation Springclean next year!

You will see from the picture that we tried to make it as much fun as possible, special thanks are due to David who brought his tractor and trailer, Mary who provided the coffee and John who bought the icecreams.

Playgroup

We are pleased to welcome Joy and Christine to Playgroup as our new Supervisors. We now have 20 children attending our sessions.

The children have enjoyed a visit from a nurse who talked about her work and played 'hospitals' with them. This was a valuable experience and we would like to thank Jan Hole for making it so enjoyable.

Many thanks to all who supported our Jumble Sale held in Earls Barton. We raised £64.00 for our funds.
