PRAY YOUR WAY THROUGH LENT

As I write this, Christmas has not long finished, but already Lent is approaching. After some of the excesses, certainly of my Christmas celebrations, perhaps this is an appropriate time to begin to think about observing the Lenten fast.

The six weeks before Easter have for centuries been observed by the Church as a period of preparation; we cannot celebrate the birth of Christ each December without also remembering his great sacrifice on the cross, and his resurrection on the first Easter Day. It was in the costly act of suffering and dying that Jesus won for us the victory over death which means that we too can rise to eternal life. But if we are to receive the benefits of his promises, we too must go through a costly process - one in which we prepare ourselves for the Kingdom of Heaven, by casting out of our own lives the sin and evil which pervade our world.

Traditionally, two things are commended to the Christian in observing Lent: give something up and take something up. Much more is often heard of the former, though I have always found the latter easier. In giving something up, we are called to examine our lives, and to attempt the discipline of denying ourselves one (or more) of the unnecessary things which might stand in the way of our relationship with our Heavenly Father. The most important part of this is the initial act of self-examination, which should also lead to a prayer of confession. Whether we confess privately to God, or publicly in Church, or before a Priest in a Sacramental Confession, we are bringing before God all our faults and failings, in full assurance that he will forgive them and strengthen by his grace to live a better life in the future.

Those who choose also to take something up for Lent often decide to make a donation to charity, or to offer assistance to a friend or neighbour. But if you are not able to do such things (or even if you are), then you could do a lot worse than take up a commitment to prayer. The Rector will be preaching on Prayer in the coming weeks, and it is his and my advice to you to pray your way through Lent. It is by prayer that we establish our relationship with God, by prayer that we talk to God, and by prayer that he is able to talk to us.

What form this commitment to prayer might take is up to you as an individual, as you find what suits you best. I urge you to begin with worship, and we will begin our observance of Lent in Church with Holy Communion on Ash Wednesday (16th February) in the morning and in the evening, both times with the traditional rite of the Imposition of Ashes (from which the day gains its name) on the forehead of all who wish to kneel before God as penitents. And for those of you who wish to use Confession as the basis of your prayers, the Rector will be available to hear Confessions throughout Lent.

However you choose to pray your way through Lent, it is often helpful to have one special prayer to use daily, to help to focus your thoughts and to remind you of the purpose of your prayer. You might choose a particular favourite of your own, and below I have reproduced one of my favourites; it is the Collect from the Book of Common Prayer which will be said by every parish Priest in England daily throughout Lent, either in this form or its modern-day equivalent.

May God be with us in our lives and in our prayers this Lent.

James Fraser

Almighty and everlasting God, who hatest nothing that thou hast made,
 and dost forgive the sins of them that are penitent;
Create and make in us
 new and contrite hearts,
 that we worthily lamenting our sins,
 and acknowledging our wretchedness,
 may obtain of thee, the God of all mercy,
 perfect remission and forgiveness;
Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

James Fraser is the Assistant Warden at Ecton House, and an ordinand in training for Priesthood in the Church of England.

RECTOR'S NOTES

The Rector and Mrs Naylor wish to thank the many people who sent them Christmas greetings through the post and by hand delivery. It is always good to know that we are in people's thoughts and prayers. And thank you also for the many kindnesses you have shown during the last year.

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

If there are any housebound communicants who would value the Blessed Sacrament being brought to them in their homes the Rector would be only too happy to hear of their need and make every attempt to meet it. His normal pattern of ministering in this manner is to visit once a month.

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

Those who attend services at the Church are always welcome to use the car parks at Ecton House provided the spaces have not been taken by guests. On special occasions Mr Sotheby allows the use of the stable yard providing permission is sought from him by letter. His thoughtfulness and kindness in this matter is much appreciated. There is, however, a rule concerning the driveway at the front of the House; only the Bishops, Archdeacon, Warden and Chairman of the House are allowed to park there.

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

I am sure that you will all agree that the Church looked quite wonderful during the festive season and those who made donations towards the cost and those who put in many hours engaged in the arrangements should be thanked for their generosity and care. It was all greatly appreciated.

The passing of Mercy Johnson has proved a sad loss to the village. Mercy contributed much to the life of the village and the Church and had many stories to tell about the old days, having lived here all her life. She was a deeply committed Christian woman and I learnt much from her, especially on my regular visits to her to take the Blessed Sacrament. Her sharp wit and infectious laughter will live in the memory. Mercy had a lovely singing voice, for many years being in the choir, and for a time she played the organ after the death of her father. She was a brave lady who suffered great pain during her later years and we extend the warmest of sympathy to her family. May her soul rest in peace and rise in glory.

Ron Tinkler's death was a shock to us all who had learned to appreciate this quiet, but cheerful man. We will all remember what good company he was, particularly on social occasions. He was a typical Londoner who had grown to love Northamptonshire, finding in Ecton a place of peace, tranquility and kindness. He loved his family and had a passionate interest in all kinds of sport. I shall miss him most for the fun we enjoyed on the Mystery Outings when we sang the old songs with enormous gusto. Our sympathies are with Maria and the family. May his soul rest in peace and rise in glory.

LENT GROUP

"Jesus was in the wilderness forty days, tempted by Satan; and he was with the wild beasts; and the angels ministered to him"

Mark 1.13

This is the sentence which will begin our communion service on the first Sunday in Lent. The gospel reading for that day will also tell us something of the forty days Jesus spent in the wilderness of Judea.

Each of the first three gospels tells us that when Jesus was Baptised in the River Jordan, by John the Baptist, the Holy Spirit seemed to descend upon him as a dove. Then the Spirit is spoken of as having "driven" Jesus into the wilderness. It was during this time - that Jesus worked out what God wanted him to do and the way in which he wanted him to do it.

It seems clear that Jesus' ministry didn't begin until he was certain that he was communicating with God through the power of the Holy Spirit. This certainty not only involved being aware of having "received" the Holy Spirit. It also involved taking time to "use" this gift to work through with God, what he wanted. It was the Holy Spirit that enabled Jesus to perform the healings and other miracles we read of. It was the Holy Spirit that helped his prayers to be so effective.

This year we have decided that it would be a good idea for us to spend the season of Lent getting to know something of what the Bible says about the Holy Spirit.

We are organising a series of Bible Studies in peoples own homes.
The format will be:

7.45 p.m. Coffee
8.00 p.m. Bible Study
8.45 p.m. Night Prayer
9.00 p.m. Home

We have some volunteers to both lead the group and to host the meeting. Dates are to be arranged so if you would like to influence our discussions please let me know. Offers to lead or host would be very welcome.

January

Our first meeting of 1994 was well attended, hopefully everyone had had an enjoyable Christmas, and is now looking forward to Spring, and Summer holidays.

It was in this mood, that Dominica Jones, part-time Library Supervisor and Tourist Information Officer for Wellingborough spoke on the History and development of Tourism – and what big business it is! She went on to make an excellent job of promoting both this area, and surrounding counties. Certainly one wonders why we bother with the hassle of holidays abroad, when this country has so much to offer Could it be something to do with the weather!? Dominica brought along masses of literature and interesting publications, all free, even including the carrier bag to take all our "goodies" home in! Vote of thanks was proposed by June Marshman.

Summer Coach Trip – Suggestions welcome – we should have plenty of ideas now!

Reminder – Annual Dinner Thursday, 10th February. Don't forget your "pressie" – so that we can exchange gifts and good wishes.

Competition – Holiday Poster of Ecton

1. Jean Knight
2. June Marshman
3. Margaret Scott

Why not make your New Year Resolution to "Enter the Competitions" every month!

I would like to thank David Dicks for the quite splendid work he has done to restore the oak cross on Canon and Mrs Jephson's grave. The cross was in poor condition but now it will last for many more years. I am quite sure that Canon Jephson would be thrilled that he is still remembered after so many years. He certainly is, although the numbers are sadly getting fewer.

ECTON FELLOWSHIP

Our next meeting is on Tuesday, 8th February not 1st February as suggested by the December magazine!

We are having a Buddhist coming to tell us about his faith and we hope everyone will come and try to bring a friend.

The meeting begins at 2.30 p.m.

FLAG DAY

I would like to thank the faithful few who gave up their time on Saturday, 8th January to shake a tin for the Night Shelter. It is not one of the best jobs on offer and I really do appreciate your support.

We managed to collect £188 which added to Ecton Ladies Night Out made a grand total of £500. As you can imagine the Night Shelter warden was delighted.

THE HELP SCHEME
(HELPING US TO HELP YOU)

We are a voluntary organisation based in Earls Barton but serving the surrounding villages.

Thank you for inviting us to introduce ourselves in your Church Magazine.

The Help Scheme was first introduced in April 1992, the aim being to provide a link for the elderly and disabled by arranging transport to and from hospital, doctors and other essential journeys. (We make a small charge towards petrol). We visit the sick, lonely and housebound. We help with form filling, shopping and many other reasonable requests.

The Help Scheme is run by the voluntary co-ordinator, Janet, her assistant, Margaret, myself, Yvonne, and many more to numerous to name.

The scheme is funded by donations and fund-raising, we hold dances, etc., and will keep you informed of these.

Should you wish to use the scheme, require more information or have a vehicle and a couple of hours to spare then please contact us.
